Ron Agor was raised in Kekaha in a sugar plantation environment. He grew up with eleven siblings, seven sisters and three brothers. Ron graduated from Waimea High School in 1966. He attended Honolulu Community College. During his first year in college, Ron met his wife, Anne (Langenfeld) Agor, when she was a senior at McKinley High School. Ron and Anne got married in 1969. They have been married for 37 years. Their daughter, Theresa Ann Agor, is 36 years of age, married with two children.

Their son, Donovan Jason Agor is 31 years of age and single. They have two grandsons Keola and Koa.

During the Vietnam Era, January of 1969, Ron was drafted into the army. He was blessed with a 20 month assignment just outside of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. With four months left in the army, Ron was sent to Bangkok, Thailand for the remainder of his service.

Ron Studied Architecture at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, California.

In early 1986, He and his family moved back to Kauai and started Agor Architecture. Today, Ron has built his business into the largest architectural firm on Kauai with 12 personnel.

In 2004, the Governor appointed Ron to the State Board of Land & Natural Resources (BLNR). Ron has served two years as the Kauai Member to the Board and always makes himself available to discuss any issue with all concerned citizens.
